

My husband and I gladly pay $40 per month to listen to K-LOVE radio. Many of our family members around the country do the same. It is music that encourages us and the station provides numerous additional benefits (i.e., event notices, prayer support, no commercials. I enjoy this from my desk at work also. Please do not displace this by an LPFM broadcaster. Thank you.